

THE BENEFITS OF SCHOOL CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

- Meteorological instruments may be borrowed from the Society for an agreed purpose.
- School Corporate Members can apply for grants:
 - ✓ to carry out small research projects which may include field work;
 - ✓ to purchase meteorological equipment to be used in research projects or on field courses;
 - ✓ to support scientific activities concerned with the study of meteorology in schools and to help fund other meteorological activities of an educational nature;
 - ✓ to take part in educational courses.
- The Society assists School Corporate Members by providing advice, guidance, etc. on a wide range of matters relating to meteorological education.
- Like Fellows and other members of the Society, School Corporate Members can purchase items from the Society's list of publications at discount prices. These items include teaching aids, books and resource packs.
- The nominated representative of the school receives Weather, which is a popular, well-illustrated, monthly magazine for all who are interested in meteorology, including teachers and their students at the GCSE and A-level stages.
- Teachers and students from a school which is a School Corporate Member may attend Society meetings on the same basis as Fellows and other members, i.e. free of charge or at a reduced fee compared with that paid by non-members of the Society.
- The nominated representative of the school is allowed access to the restricted area of the Society's website.
