Local centres

Like the Society itself, Local Centres are particularly dependent on the active participation of members. Please contact your nearest Local Centre secretary (address available on individual group page) to express your interest. Principal locations for meetings and other activities arranged by Local Centres can be found by following the links on the left.

The Society encourages the formation of new Local Centres, especially for those members who cannot often travel to London or the existing Centres.

Local Centre Meetings >> [10]

Source URL: http://www.rmets.org/about-us/local-centres

Links: