

Private Secretary

Telephone
3022 Central

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE
PALM MALL

24th June, 1904.

Sir,

In reply to the letter of the 23rd instant from yourself and the other Authorities connected with the Royal Meteorological Society, asking the Prince of Wales to become its Patron, I am directed to inform you that His Royal Highness has much pleasure in acquiescing in this request.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to be "Arthur B. Jones". The signature is written in a cursive style and is underlined with a single horizontal stroke.

Captain D. Wilson-Barker.
President,
Royal Meteorological Society,
70, Victoria Street, S.W.